

cause it was through our discussion of the Trident that the press found out at the conference that it was not well explained. As a matter of fact, I think that if you will look at that release, you must agree that we have gone to great lengths to try and present the facts correctly.

[The news release referred to follows:]